SUMMARY OF APPROACH

Alliance Trust aims to be a core equity holding for investors that delivers a real return over the long term through a combination of capital growth and a rising dividend. The Trust invests primarily in global equities across a wide range of industries and sectors to achieve its objective.

The Trust's investment manager, Willis Towers Watson, has appointed a number of stock pickers with different styles, who each ignore the benchmark and only buy a small number of stocks in which they have strong conviction. Investors therefore get the benefit of both highly focused stock picking to increase potential outperformance versus the benchmark and manager diversification to reduce risk and volatility. The Trust's diversified but highly active multi-manager portfolio is competitively priced.

Risk warnings

Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future returns. The value of shares and the income from them can rise and fall, so investors may not get back the amount originally invested. Net Asset Value ("NAV") performance is not the same as share price performance and investors may not realise returns the same as NAV performance. Exchange rate changes may cause the value of overseas investments to go down as well as up and can impact on both the level of income received and capital value of your investment. Investment trusts may borrow to finance further investment (gearing). The use of gearing is likely to lead to volatility in the NAV, meaning that a relatively small movement, down or up, in the value of a trust's assets will result in a magnified movement, in the same direction, of that NAV. This may mean that you could get back less than you invested or nothing at all.

INVESTMENT COMMENTARY

For the month of October, the Trust's total shareholder return and NAV total return were -2.0% and -1.6% respectively, outperforming the benchmark MSCI All Country World Index (ACWI) which returned -2.2%.

In October, most global equity markets were up in local currency terms, as the US Federal Reserve cut interest rates for the third time this year and geopolitical tensions eased, with the US and China progressing towards a partial trade deal and significant developments in UK-EU Brexit negotiations. As a result of a revised Withdrawal Agreement being agreed between the UK Government and EU leaders, albeit that it has yet to be passed by the House of Commons, the news led to a significant strengthening of sterling against other major market currencies. This strengthening meant that for sterling investors, like the Trust, non-UK equity market returns for the month were negative.

Within the Trust's portfolio, a position was initiated in Altice USA, a US-based television cable provider delivering telecommunication services to 4.9 million customers across the US. Altice USA offer an opportunity, alongside current positions in Comcast and Charter Communications, in cable companies that also provide broadband sales and show good potential to benefit from the streaming revolution taking place across television services. Existing holdings in Yum! Brands, a US fast food company, and Carnival Corporation, a British-American cruise operator, were increased following recent price weakness reducing earnings multiples across both firms, making them even more attractive long term prospects for the portfolio.

Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future returns. The mention of any specific shares should not be taken as a recommendation to deal.
