SUMMARY OF APPROACH

Alliance Trust aims to be a core equity holding for investors that delivers a real return over the long term through a combination of capital growth and a rising dividend. The Company invests primarily in global equities across a wide range of industries and sectors to achieve its objective.

The Company's investment manager, Willis Towers Watson, has appointed a number of stock pickers with different styles, who each ignore the benchmark and only buy a small number of stocks in which they have strong conviction. Investors therefore get the benefit of both highly focused stock picking to increase potential outperformance versus the benchmark and manager diversification to reduce risk and volatility. The Company's diversified but highly active multi-manager portfolio is competitively priced.

Risk warnings

Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future returns. The value of shares and the income from them can rise and fall, so investors may not get back the amount originally invested. Net Asset Value ("NAV") performance is not the same as share price performance and investors may not realise returns the same as NAV performance. Exchange rate changes may cause the value of overseas investments to go down as well as up and can impact on both the level of income received and capital value of your investment. Investment trusts may borrow to finance further investment (gearing). The use of gearing is likely to lead to volatility in the NAV, meaning that a relatively small movement, down or up, in the value of a trust's assets will result in a magnified movement, in the same direction, of that NAV. This may mean that you could get back less than you invested or nothing at all.

NAV and NAV total return is based on NAV including income with debt at fair value, after all manager fees (including Willis Towers Watson's fees) and allows for any tax reclaim when they are achieved. The NAV total return shown in the factsheets up to May 2018 was based on NAV excluding income with debt valued at par.

1. Total borrowings at par value divided by net assets.

2. Factsheet reissued to restate the net gearing level which was incorrectly reported with total borrowings calculated at fair value rather than calculated as stated as total borrowings at par value minus total cash and equivalents, divided by net assets with debt at par.

3. Annual dividend per share divided by share price.

4. MSCI All Country World Index Net Dividends Reinvested.

5. 1 April 2017 was the date that Willis Towers Watson was appointed investment manager.

6. The OCR target of 0.65% is based on NAV reported as at 31 December 2017.

7. The OCR for year to 31 December 2019 was calculated in line with the industry standard using the average of net asset values at each NAV calculation date. Previously we reported the OCR based on the average Net Asset Value (NAV) denominator of opening and closing NAV for the year; based on the old methodology, the OCR for the year to 31 December 2019 was 0.64%.

INVESTMENT COMMENTARY

For the month of August, the Trust's Total Shareholder Return and NAV Total Return were 5.7% and 6.0% respectively, outperforming the MSCI All Country World Index (ACWI) benchmark which returned 4.8%.

Nvidia Corp was the largest contributor to the Trust's portfolio over the month, delivering an absolute return of 12.8%. The company announced its financial results for the second quarter, posting record revenues of $3.87bn up 50% year on year and up 26% from the previous quarter. The company's data centre business grew at 167% year over year, benefitting from the inclusion of Mellanox, a provider of networking products and solutions for data centres, which NVIDIA recently acquired. Convatec Group PLC, an international medical products company, was the primary detractor from performance over the month. The company reported its interim results for the six months ended 30 June 2020, which showed group revenues up 2.1% year on year. The Advanced Wound Care segment declined due to the negative impact of coronavirus leading to reduced elective surgeries as well as lower non-surgical volumes. Although the company expects further COVID-19 related disruptions it is taking steps to strategically reposition the business in response to the pandemic, such as enhancing their digital capabilities, whilst delaying spend in other areas to reflect the current environment. Therefore, we have maintained the Convatec Group position within the portfolio as it remains as a potential source of return for the Trust.

Within the Trust's portfolio, a position was initiated in Vinci, a leading toll road and airport operator in France. Due to the dramatic decline in demand for transport services over lockdown, shares have fallen and hence were purchased at an attractive price, creating an opportunity for the Trust. Similarly, a new position in TransDigm was established, which provides components for use on commercial and military aircraft.

We have maintained the diversified portfolio positioning and remained defensive in our use of gearing, whilst making a small adjustment to the portfolio by increasing the exposure to value-style managers and away from the growth style to balance the Trust's position in the current market conditions.

Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future returns. The mention of any specific shares should not be taken as a recommendation to deal.
