

Monthly Factsheet

SUMMARY OF APPROACH

Alliance Trust aims to be a core equity holding for investors that delivers a real return over the long term through a combination of capital growth and a rising dividend. The Company invests primarily in global equities across a wide range of industries and sectors to achieve its objective.

The Company's investment manager, Willis Towers Watson, has appointed a number of stock pickers with different styles, who each ignore the benchmark and only buy a small number of stocks in which they have strong conviction. Investors therefore get the benefit of both highly focused stock picking to increase potential outperformance versus the benchmark and manager diversification to reduce risk and volatility. The Company's diversified but highly active multi-manager portfolio is competitively priced.

INVESTMENT PERFORMANCE

ABSOLUTE PERFORMANCE (TOTAL RETURN IN STERLING)

CUMULATIVE PERFORMANCE (%)

To 30 April 2021	5 Years	Since 01.04.17 ⁵	3 Years	1 Year	YTD	Month
Total shareholder return	113.8	54.9	43.1	37.4	9.9	6.1

MSCI ACWI total return ⁴	102.4	52.4	44.8	32.8	7.8	4.0

The NAV total return reflects the impact of owning investments other than global equities prior to 30 June 2019, which had a drag on the return. Between 1 April 2017 and 30 April 2021, the performance of the equity portfolio before fees (a good approximation of the NAV total return after costs had these legacy investments not been included), was 55.9% versus the return on the MSCI ACWI Index⁴ of 52.4%.

Risk warnings

Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future returns. The value of shares and the income from them can rise and fall, so investors may not get back the amount originally invested. Net Asset Value ("NAV") performance is not the same as share price performance and investors may not realise returns in line with NAV performance. Exchange rate changes may cause the value of overseas investments to go down as well as up and can impact on both the level of income received and capital value of your investment. Investment trusts may borrow to finance further investment (gearing). The use of gearing is likely to lead to volatility in the NAV, meaning that a relatively small movement, down or up, in the value of an investment trust's assets will result in a magnified movement, in the same direction, of that NAV. This may mean that you could get back less than you invested or nothing at all.

Investment Commentary

For the month of April, the Company's Total Shareholder Return and NAV Total Return were 6.1% and 5.4% respectively, outperforming the MSCI All Country World Index (ACWI) benchmark which returned 4.0%.

Over the month, the Company's outperformance was primarily led by Alphabet, delivering an absolute return of approximately 15%. The parent company of global leading search engine Google announced its heightened measures to protect users through more enforced legal frameworks, whilst its consumer activity also returned to pre-COVID levels as the pandemic continued to retreat and countries progressed out of lockdown. In contrast to this, HDFC Bank (an Indian banking and financial services company) was the primary detractor over April, delivering an absolute return of -10%. Near-term economic forecasts fell as the number of COVID cases and hospital shortages in India reached a record high over the month, creating substantial uncertainty around the strength of the economy.

Within the Company's portfolio, the position in Volkswagen was trimmed. The shares have performed very well following a substantial increase in electric vehicle sales and an improving outlook for the world economy. The position was reduced in size but still remains in the portfolio as the valuation is attractive having moved from a crisis low valuation to just a low valuation. Elsewhere in the portfolio, TSMC, a Taiwanese semiconductor manufacturer, was purchased during the month as our manager's conviction in a robust demand outlook for semiconductors increased.

Over the month, we introduced two new managers to the portfolio, Sands Capital (a global growth manager) and Metropolis Capital (a global value manager) and undertook small rebalancing adjustments to ensure the portfolio remains style neutral.

Past performance is not a reliable indicator of future returns. The mention of any specific shares should not be taken as a recommendation to deal.
